□ Carrying on Philia's will 1

First, I will write here as an homage the opening phrase from Philia's site:

“She was born on December 8th, 1980, at 10:50 PM. The exact time Mark David Chapman killed John Lennon. For me, though, that’s just a coincidence. All I care about is that she was born at that exact moment. Her name: Lily Chou-Chou. Genius. Or rather, genesis. The Ether personified.”
